

White Fang

by Jack London

Wolves moved down
the Mackenzie River.

Warm Up

She-wolf looked for home.

Mother fought hard.

Go back to Chapter 1:

1. Label the pictures in order of events.
2. Label the pictures with expressions!

Little animal next to she-wolf

Cub loved life.

Chapter 2 - White Fang

Task#1: Match the names with their descriptions:

- | | |
|----------------------------|--|
| 1. ___ White Fang | a. What men in the camp appeared to be for White Fang. |
| 2. ___ Kiche | b. A young dog that did not like other dogs. |
| 3. ___ Gray Beaver | c. A cub whose father was a wolf. |
| 4. ___ Lip-lip | d. The Indian that took White Fang's mother, Kiche. |
| 5. ___ gods | e. The cruel Indian that kept White Fang. |
| 6. ___ Three Eagles | f. White Fang's mom. |

Task#2: Put the sentences of each section into the correct order:

A

- ___ "Kiche!" said one of the men.
- ___ "Her father was a wolf, and her mother was a dog," one of the men said.
- ___ Suddenly, he saw five big animals.
- ___ The man put his hand on her head, but she did not bite him!
- ___ The cub showed his little fangs.
- ___ "She ran away last year," a second man said.
- ___ One of them came to him and put his hand near him.
- ___ The cub's mother ran to him and snarled loudly.
- ___ The cub ran to the river.
- ___ The cub's mother laid down on the ground.
- ___ The man laughed.

B

- ___ They walked more and came to the Mackenzie River where they made a camp.
- ___ There, a young dog, Lip-lip, bit and fought White Fang.
- ___ After some time, men, women, and children and dogs came through the trees.
- ___ The people and dogs carried heavy bags.

C

- ___ It was the color of the sun.
- ___ Later, women and children brought Gray Beaver sticks.
- ___ They made fire!
- ___ He ran to his mother and lay down next to her.
- ___ The men in the camp were strong.
- ___ White Fang went near it and hurt his nose.
- ___ A strange thing came up from the sticks.
- ___ They were gods to White Fang.

D

- ___ This time, White Fang did not bite him.
- ___ White Fang felt angry and bit Gray Beaver's foot.
- ___ He wanted his mother.
- ___ One morning, Three Eagles took Kiche onto his boat.
- ___ He hit him and threw him into the bottom of the boat.
- ___ White Fang swam after it.
- ___ He hit White Fang very hard and threw him to the bottom of the boat again.
- ___ Gray Beaver followed him, caught White Fang's neck, and pulled him out of the water.

E

- ___ Life in the camp was interesting, so he was not sad too long.
- ___ In the night, White Fang remembered his mother and cried loudly.

F

- ___ He had to be faster, more intelligent, and more dangerous than the other dogs if he wanted to live.
- ___ Other dogs started fights with White Fang too.
- ___ Lip-lip hated White Fang and often started fights with him.
- ___ These fights taught White Fang important lessons.

G

- ___ Nobody gave him love.
- ___ The Indians were angry with him and shouted at him angrily.
- ___ One day, White Fang killed a dog in a fight.
- ___ White Fang learned only about hate.

