

White Fang

by Jack London

Chapter 3 - A Trip up the Mackenzie

Task#1: Match the names with their descriptions:

- | | |
|-----------------------------|-----------------------------------|
| 1. _____ Mit-sah | a. Gray Beaver's daughter-in-law. |
| 2. _____ Kiche | b. Gray Beaver's son. |
| 3. _____ Kloo-klooch | c. White Fang's owner. |
| 4. _____ Gray Beaver | d. White Fang's mom. |

Task#2: Put the sentences of each section into the correct order:

A

- _____ White Fang ran out of the camp and played in the woods for some time.
- _____ When he ran back to the camp, there was nobody there.
- _____ Grey Beaver called his name, but White Fang didn't come back right away.
- _____ In the fall Some Indians put everything into bags and boats and left.

B

- _____ Gray Beaver gave him some meat!
- _____ He ran all night and day feeling weak and hungry.
- _____ White Fang felt warm and happy.
- _____ White Fang began to run, climb, swim, and look for the gods.
- _____ Then, he smelled the gods through the snow and saw Gray Beaver near a fire.
- _____ White Fang felt afraid, but he went to Gray Beaver.

C

- _____ Gray Beaver and his son Mit-sah tied White Fang and other dogs to a sled.
- _____ In the middle of December, Gray Beaver went up the Mackenzie River.
- _____ Lip-lip ran at the front, and the other dogs hated him.

D

- _____ Mit-sah told the story, and Gray Beaver gave White Fang a lot of meat.
- _____ At one village, a boy cut some meat and White Fang ate it.
- _____ White Fang understood that there were different gods: his gods and other gods.
- _____ The boy's family complained, but Gray Beaver spoke angrily to them and did not hit White Fang.
- _____ Later that day, some boys hit Mit-sah in the woods, but White Fang made them run away.
- _____ The boy tried to hit him, but White Fang bit the boy's hand.

E

- _____ In the summer, White Fang saw Kiche, but she could not remember him.
- _____ In April, they arrived in Gray Beaver's village.
- _____ Kiche bit him, but this was a she-wolf, and he could not fight her.
- _____ White Fang was one year old and not afraid of the older dogs.

F

- ___ The old and weak gods died, and the other gods cried all the time.
- ___ In the third year of White Fang's life, there was no food, fish, or wild animals.
- ___ White Fang also was very hungry, but he always killed something the woods.

G

- ___ That was the end of Lip-lip.
- ___ Early in the summer, he met Lip-lip in the woods, pushed him to the ground, and bit his neck hard.

H

- ___ White Fang felt happy to be with the gods again.
- ___ Kloo-koooh gave him a fish.
- ___ One day, White Fang left the woods and went back to the village.

Task#3: Color the wolf!

